Brother ,

In the midst of unprecedented times regarding the Coronavirus, I wanted to take a moment to extend my well-wishes to you and your family as we all adjust to the new work and school-related realities. In addition, I hope you and your families are all healthy and safe. It seems almost surreal to think of how everything has changed in just a few short weeks.

As a donor to the AKPsi Foundation, you may have been tracking the fraternity's communication over the past few weeks. Specifically, AKPsi has sent out a series of emails, launched a webpage of resources, and is facilitating more engagement in the myAKPsi Community.

As universities began the process of shifting to on-line classrooms and sending students home from campus, AKPsi staff and volunteers convened to develop an action plan to meet the needs of our chapter officers as they navigate their new reality. The staff, and management team, have maintained constant contact with the chapter officers and advisors, answering questions regarding chapter operations, pledging, and upcoming Rituals and initiation. And, during the weekend of March 13-14, the Foundation and Fraternity Boards of Directors met to discuss the guidance being offered to our Brothers. A summary can be found on this website.

In addition to chapter related guidance, we are sourcing virtual resources to assist our Brothers. Some are meant to help adjust to 'learn from home' & 'work from home' schedules, others address mental health, and others are simply meant to put a smile on your face. Here are a few of our favorites that may help you:

- Nonprofit Resources for Remote Work During the COVID-19 Outbreak
- Combating burnout, isolation, and anxiety in the remote workplace
- I Spent a Year in Space, and I Have Tips on Isolation to Share

Please stop by the myAKPsi Community to respond to the threads we have going (or start your own), and be on the look-out for upcoming opportunities to virtually connect with your Brothers. Feel free to email us with any thoughts, concerns, requests, or questions, and we will do our best to answer them.
